I was asked by a reporter today if I had any thoughts regarding the NRA. I get those very often. I made a statement on May 14th and I have nothing else to say. Nor did I reply.

He also asked (nor am I going to reply to him) what I thought about "savethe2a.org" (<http://www.savethe2a.org>). But I will answer: I have been trying to engage members in their Association for years. So if this group wants to promote a strong 💪 NRA based on attendance, term limits and a more focused Association, who am I to argue? That is grassroots and members in action.

These are also points I pledged both times I ran for the Board, and I am keeping them. The NRA is its members.

My pledge:
